Major General Garrison B. Coverdale
Commandant
U. S. Army Strategic Intelligence School
Main Navy Building
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear General Coverdale:

Many thanks for your invitation to address the Sixty-first Class of U. S. Army Strategic Intelligence School at 1330 hours on Friday, 3 August.

I am pleased to accept and I assure you that I will certainly not talk more than twenty minutes. At the moment, I do not believe my remarks will be classified higher than "Official Use Only" to avoid undue repetition at cocktail parties -- certainly I would not get involved in anything as high as "Top Secret."

Thanks again for thinking of me.

Faithfully yours,

M

Marshall S. Carter

I called [REDACTED] and told him General Carter would make this graduation address but would only speak for 15-20 minutes. Mr. [REDACTED] said he would so inform [REDACTED] and a written formal request will be forthcoming. I asked Mr. [REDACTED] if he would send up for General Carter some brief notes as suggestions of what he could tell the group. In this regard, Mr. [REDACTED] said that although the wives will be present, they are cleared for Secret material, so the
